

Previous Thesis Titles

- Political representation in late fifth century BC Athenian comedy The Historiographical Context of Shakespeare's Henry VIII
- Imperial representation in Suetonius: What is the relationship between the descriptions of the physical appearance of the emperors in Suetonius's De Vita Caesarum, and the imperial portraiture created under their rule?
- Transforming classical Roman destiny: Orosius' providential history
- The Rosetta Stone: an inquiry into a stone emblematic of Britain's imperial power
- How and to what extent does the development of the urban and monumental landscape of Ravenna reflect the wider developments in the religious, political and cultural status of that city in the years between A.D. 400 and 568?
- The Origins of the last Great War of Antiquity: Superpower Relations and the Politics of Supremacy 579-602
- Christian floor mosaics of the later Roman empire: changing perspectives, old forms
- Death, Discipline and dissolution: The enforcement of the reformation in 1530's Oxfordshire
- The treatment of mediaeval history and gender in Elizabethan literature
- Dramatising rebellion: Playwrights, Government Propagandists and Historians in the late Elizabethan and early Jacobean period
- Witchcraft in early modern Essex c.1560-1590: a reading of the pamphlets
- Witchcraft and childhood in early modern Europe; What does the involvement of children in witchcraft trials, literature and popular belief reveal about childhood and in the early modern period?
- The impact of the 1650 Act against incest, adultery and fornication and its aftermath: 1650-1675
- Many daughters have don well but yow exceedest them all'. The relationship between mothers and daughters of the gentry in the seventeenth century, as documented by their own autobiographical works
- Old Oliver's Ghost': The Role of the Supernatural in Anti-Cromwellian Literature, 1659-1662
- Foreign and Exotic: Quackery in England from the mid-seventeenth to the mid-eighteenth centuries
- Infanticide Trials at the Old Bailey 1674-1800
- Private benefaction and the architecture of Oxford University 1730-1790
- Influenced by the enemy of souls': Was Native American resistance the greatest hindrance to the progress of the Spanish missionaries in California, 1769-86?
- The colour of God's beard - the theology of the Taiping rebels
- Victorian Attitudes to Prostitution: The Case of the Bolton Committee for the Reclamation of Unfortunate Women 1867-1870
- From Dissenter to Hero: Perception, Commemoration and Exploitation of John Bunyan in Bedford c.1870-1920
- The International company of Mexico; State-led development, informal Empire and Anglo-American rivalry in Baja California 1886-1892

- The Palestinian encounter with Zionism 1882-1922
- The 1905 Aliens Act: The working class, politics and racism
- A crime without perpetrators? Accounting for the loss of life in the First World War.
- An uneasy alliance?: A study of the relationship between the national union of Women's Suffrage societies ENWUWSS and the Labour Party leadership in Britain, 1906-1914
- The work of French naval surgeons and physicians studying the yellow fever in the French West Indies, and its contagion: The debate amongst themselves, as well as with higher authorities, and their influence on policy recommendations.
- Theories of working-class homogeneity and solidarity tested in the 1920s Nottinghamshire coalfield.
- Unemployment, anti-fascism and the British volunteers in the Spanish Civil War
- Courting Britannia: the Romanian diplomatic and propaganda offensives of 1938-9 and the balance of power in South-Eastern Europe
- Time Magazine and the Cold War: Has Russia shifted from Ally to Adversary, 1942-7
- Music and Propaganda in Britain during the Second World War: case-studies in Broadcasting and Film American Misconceptions of Vietnamese Nationalism 1944-1946
- Fitting into the Melting Pot: G.I. Brides, Perception and Reality
- Turmoil in Africa: a case study of how the Mau Mau rebellion was reported in 'the Chicago Defender'
- The Unilateral Declaration of Independence and Rhodesian economics 1965-1980
- The Republican in flux: Irish Republicanism 1970-81
- Teenage runaways - slipping through the welfare net: 'Johnny go home' and the problem of teenage runaways in the 1970s Brixton in context: The Greater London Council, the Metropolitan police and the riots of 1981
- From Emergency Aid to Development Agency: Oxfam in the Horn of Africa Famine