FACULTY OF MODERN HISTORY

General Undergraduate Questionnaire on lectures and classes attended
Michaelmas/Hilary/Trinity Term

This questionnaire enables you to comment on any or all of the lectures and classes which you are or have been attending in the current term. Your answers and comments will not be read by the lecturer(s) or class convenor(s) concerned, but they may be sent a summary by the Chair of the Teaching Committee of the Faculty Board. A report on all returns of questionnaires will be made termly to the Teaching Committee and the Undergraduate JCC. Please complete the form anonymously. The Faculty is keen to receive as much feedback as undergraduates are willing to offer.

Further comment and suggestions:

Please comment as fully as you wish (and continue over), indicating clearly the particular lectures and/or classes to which your comments apply. Suggestions as to topics which might be covered in future, comments on the success of courses in realising their objectives, on the relation between lectures or classes and your tutorial programme, and on library provision are all valuable.

Please return your completed questionnaire in the postbox provided on the landing outside the History Faculty Library, on the first floor of the Modern History Faculty building.
