

FACULTY OF HISTORY

Amendments and Additions to the Hilary Term 2010 Lecture List

SPECIAL LECTURES:

We apologize for the incorrect listing of Professor Bates, who is giving the Ford Lectures; he is in fact from both the University of East Anglia and the Université de Caen-Basse-Normandie.

The Carlyle lectures will run Thursdays from weeks 2 to 7, Thursday 28 January to Thursday 4 March; the dates in the printed list are incorrect.

Prof. Mehrotra will lecture on 'Literature in a Multilingual World: Sant Kabir, Rudyard Kipling, and Vernacular English', on 5pm Tuesday week 6 (23 Feb), in the St Cross Building, LT2.

THE PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION

(1) British History

(VII) Prof. Bogdanor will lecture on 'British Politics and Government in the 20th Century' at Brasenose College on Fridays at 12 noon.

(4) Approaches, Historiography, Foreign Texts and Quantification

Dr Nightingale and Dr Kempshall will lecture on 'Einhard and Asser' at 12 noon on Tuesdays of weeks 1, 3, 5, and 7; the time of 11am given in the printed list is incorrect.

FINAL HONOUR SCHOOL

(5) British History

(VII) Prof. Bogdanor will lecture on 'British Politics and Government in the 20th Century' at Brasenose College on Fridays at 12 noon.

(6) General History

(V-VI) Dr Firnhaber-Baker's fourth week lecture on 'Women, Power, and the Law in the Middle Ages' will take place on 2pm on Monday 8 February rather than Tuesday 9, at the Schools.

(XV-XVI) Dr Cole will lecture on 'The Birth of America' on Wednesdays at 10am at the Schools, rather than the 11am listed in the printed list.

(7) Further Subject

(2) Dr T. Andrews will teach the class on 'The Near East in the age of Justinian and Mohammed' Tuesdays 10:30, in the Ioannou Centre for Classics, St. Giles.

(21) The class taught by Dr Misra in 'Imperialism and Nationalism 1830-1980: South Asia' will run Tuesdays 4pm weeks 1-4 at Keble, rather than Tuesdays 5pm as previously listed.

(9) Disciplines of History

The Making Historical Comparisons lecture series will run Fridays 12 noon at the Exam Schools, weeks 1-8. Full details can be found on the online lecture list.

POSTGRADUATE COURSES AND SEMINARS

Please note that the optional subject seminars in the M.St. in History of Art and Visual Culture (Authenticity and Replication in Art and Visual Culture, Gothic: Artistic Originality and the Transmission of Style in Medieval Art, Media and Modernity: Art and Mass Culture, 1880-2000, and Theories of Vision: The Eye and the Gaze) are only open to individuals taking those specific options.

Dr Othon Anastasakis and Dr Renée Hirschon will convene a seminar series on 'Changing Identities in South East Europe' on Mondays at 5pm, the European Studies Centre, 70 Woodstock Road.

Dr Mustapha & Dr Soares de Oliveira will convene the African History & Politics Seminar on Mondays at 5pm at the European Studies Centre, 70 Woodstock Road.

Erika Hanna, Chloe Jeffries, Daniel Lee and Robert Priest will convene a seminar series on 'Culture and Society in Modern Britain and Europe' on Mondays at 5pm at the History Faculty.

Please note that the Saints and Sanctity class in the M.St. in Medieval History will now be convened by Dr C. Leyser without Mr Ward-Perkins.
