

FACULTY OF HISTORY

General Scheme for 2011-12

NOTICE: non-members of the University may not attend university lectures (unless they are announced as open to the general public) without payment of a fee, otherwise than by personal invitation of the lecturer concerned. Persons who are neither reading for a qualification of this University nor otherwise exempt under special arrangements for certain categories of non-members, and who wish to attend lectures in any term, should apply to the Fees Clerk, University Offices, Wellington Square, Oxford OX1 2JD, who will provide information on the fee required. Senior visiting scholars from other universities who wish to attend lectures, seminars, or classes should normally approach the lecturer concerned directly, and not the Fees Clerk.

Key to symbols:

^o = Open to any university member to attend at any time

^A = Open to members of the university upon application, admissions at the discretion of the convenor

^x = (normally) restricted to members of the university taking the appropriate paper

MODERN HISTORY AND MODERN LANGUAGESLECTURES AND CLASSES

The list of Lectures and Classes is divided into sections for The Preliminary Examination (Sections 1 to 4), Final Honour School (Sections 5 to 10), and Postgraduate Courses and Seminars (Sections 11 to 13). The sections designed for undergraduate courses include general headings, History of the British Isles (Sections 1 and 5), General History (Sections 2 and 6), and specific headings, Optional Subjects (Section 3), Approaches, Historiography, Foreign Texts and Quantification (Section 4), Further Subjects (Section 7), Special Subjects (Section 8), Disciplines of History and Political Thought (Section 9) and the Compulsory Thesis (Section 10). Courses specifically designed for Optional, Further and Special Subjects are numbered (OSI, FSI, SSI, etc.), and these numbers may be added to other courses suitable for though not specific to these papers. Some courses of lectures are entered under more than one heading, while others not so entered may none the less be relevant to more than one subject in Honour Moderations or the Final Honour School. Undergraduates and graduates are recommended to read through all sections of the list and not to focus narrowly on those specifically designated for particular options in examinations. Lectures relevant to Modern History courses may also appear on other faculties' lecture lists, which can be found on the University website at <http://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/pub/lectures>
