

FACULTY OF HISTORY

Lecture List for Trinity Term 2011

NOTICE: non-members of the University may not attend university lectures (unless they are announced as open to the general public) without payment of a fee, otherwise than by personal invitation of the lecturer concerned. Persons who are neither reading for a qualification of this University nor otherwise exempt under special arrangements for certain categories of non-members, and who wish to attend lectures in any term, should apply to the Fees Clerk, University Offices, Wellington Square, Oxford OX1 2JD, who will provide information on the fee required. Senior visiting scholars from other universities who wish to attend lectures, seminars, or classes should normally approach the lecturer concerned directly, and not the Fees Clerk.

Lectures begin on the first possible day after the beginning of Full Term (Sunday, 1 May) unless otherwise stated.

Lectures will begin five minutes after the hour and finish at five minutes before the next hour.

N.B. Lectures marked § have subtitles immediately below the main title.

Key to symbols:

^o = Open to any university member to attend at any time

^A = Open to members of the university upon application, admissions at the discretion of the convenor

^x = (normally) restricted to members of the university taking the appropriate paper.
