Lecture List for Michaelmas Term 2009

---

NOTICE: non-members of the University may not attend university lectures (unless they are announced as open to the general public) without payment of a fee, otherwise than by personal invitation of the lecturer concerned. Persons who are neither reading for a qualification of this University nor otherwise exempt under special arrangements for certain categories of non-members, and who wish to attend lectures in any term, should apply to the Fees Clerk, University Offices, Wellington Square, Oxford OX1 2JD, who will provide information on the fee required. Senior visiting scholars from other universities who wish to attend lectures, seminars, or classes should normally approach the lecturer concerned directly, and not the Fees Clerk.

Lectures begin on the first possible day after the beginning of Full Term (Sunday, 11 October) unless otherwise stated.

Lectures will begin five minutes after the hour and finish at five minutes before the next hour.

N.B. Lectures marked § have subtitles immediately below the main title.

Key to symbols:

<sup>o</sup> = Open to any university member to attend at any time

<sup>A</sup> = Open to members of the university upon application, admissions at the discretion of the convenor

OTHER COURSES

BRIDGE PAPERS FOR JOINT SCHOOLS CANDIDATES

HISTORY AND ENGLISH

LECTURES AND CLASSES

The list of Lectures and Classes is divided into sections for the Preliminary Examination (Sections 1 to 4), Final Honour School (Sections 5 to 10), and Postgraduate Courses and Seminars (Sections 11 to 13). The sections designed for undergraduate courses include general headings, History of the British Isles (Sections 1 and 5), General History (Sections 2 and 6), and specific headings, Optional Subjects (Section 3), Approaches, Historiography, Foreign Texts and Quantification (Section 4), Further Subjects (Section 7), Special Subjects (Section 8), Disciplines of History and Political Thought (Section 9), and The Compulsory Thesis (Section 10). Courses specifically designed for Optional, Further and Special Subjects are numbered (OSI, FSI, SSI, etc.), and these numbers may be added to other courses suitable for though not specific to these papers. Some courses of lectures are entered under more than one heading, while others not so entered may none the less be relevant to more than one subject in the Preliminary Examination or the Final Honour School. Undergraduates and graduates are recommended to read through all sections of the list and not to focus narrowly on those specifically designated for particular options in examinations. Attention is also drawn to the General Scheme of Lectures which students are advised to use to plan their lecture attendance throughout the year. Lectures relevant to History courses may also appear on other faculties' lecture lists, which can be found on the University web site at <http://www.admin.ox.ac.uk/pub/lectures>

POSTGRADUATE COURSES AND SEMINARS

The programme of speakers in each seminar is posted at <http://www.history.ox.ac.uk/seminars>

Research Students in History (particularly Probationer Research Students and candidates for the M.St. in Historical Research) are reminded that they are required to attend the ‘core’ seminar relevant to their period or area of study, and that they are encouraged to attend optional subject classes for the M.St. in History and M.Phil. in Modern European History relevant to their area of research. All participants in such classes will be expected to prepare themselves for each session in the same way as those who take the class as part of their taught programme.

Students on taught courses are advised that offerings listed in the ‘research seminars’ section may be relevant to their course of study, particularly the ‘core’ seminars in the subject area of their intended course dissertation.

For key to symbols see p. 1
