

FACULTY OF HISTORY
LECTURES AND CLASSES FOR UNDERGRADUATES
LECTURE LIST SYNOPSIS FOR THE YEAR AHEAD

Please return to Chris McCloskey, History Faculty Office, George Street by Monday of Fifth Week (31st May) at the latest.

Please use a separate form for each seminar / class and write clearly. Lecturers should consult Chris McCloskey / Facilities Officer in order to book a room before giving the Examination Schools/ History Faculty as the place of the lecture or class.

Name of lecture / class		available in MT – HT – TT (please select as appropriate)
Name of convenor(s)
College
For lectures/classes in Michaelmas Term.
Place
Day & Time

Is this

- A lecture
 A class

Is your lecture or class (please tick as appropriate):

- open to any university member to attend at any time?
 open to applicants, admission at the discretion of the convenor?
 (normally) restricted to students taking the appropriate paper?

Please indicate in which section of the list your lecture or class should appear

- Special Lectures
 Languages for Historians
 Bridge papers for Modern History and English
 Bridge paper for Modern History and Modern Languages
Prelims
 History of the British Isles
 General History
 Optional Subjects
 Approaches, Historiography, Foreign Texts and Quantification
Final Honour School
 History of the British Isles
 General History (please specify paper(s))
 Further Subjects
 Special Subjects
 Disciplines of History and Political Thought
 The Compulsory Thesis

OTHER FACULTY LISTS ON WHICH YOUR SEMINAR SHOULD APPEAR (e.g., English, Theology):