

African History & Politics Seminar
Hilary Term 2012
Oxford Department of International Development
Department of Politics & International Relation
History Faculty
African Studies Centre.

Mondays, 5.p.m.

Oxford Department of International Development, 3 Mansfield Road, Seminar Room 1

16 January - John Campbell (SOAS)

The Illusion of Citizenship: Politics and 'Persecution' in Eritrea and Ethiopia today

23 January – Ian Walker (Oxford)

Strategies of Identity Construction among the Comorian Community of Zanzibar, 1890-1963

30 January - Adekeye Adebajo (Cape Town)

UN Peacekeeping in Africa: From the Suez Crisis to the Sudan Conflicts

06 February - Diana Jeater (Oxford)

Human Rights and Inhuman Violence in Zimbabwe: Seeking an Interface between Secular and Spiritual Discourses of Humanity

13 February - Hannah Hoehner (Oxford)

'Either speak good about us, or keep quiet!' Participatory Film Making with Qur'anic Students in Kano

20 February - Abdul Raufu Mustapha (Oxford)

Boko Haram: The Long Road to Terrorism

27 February - Nina Studer (Oxford/Zurich)

Empirical Knowledge: Categorising Female North African Patients in French Colonial Psychiatry

05 March - Richard Reid (SOAS)

Ghosts in the Academy: History and Historians in the Making of Modern Uganda

Convenors: AR Mustapha, Jan-Georg Deutsch, & Ricardo Soares de Oliveira.