

GRADUATE SEMINAR IN HISTORY 1680-1850

The seminar will meet weekly, on Wednesdays from 5.00 p.m., in the Memorial Room, Worcester College. Tea will be served from 4.45. All research students working in this period are encouraged to attend; anyone else interested is also very welcome.

- 1st wk (18 Jan) Ric Berman (MEHRC, History Faculty), Early eighteenth-century Freemasonry: sociability, science and politics
- 2nd wk (25 Jan) Jelle van Lottum (Birmingham), Comparing labour migration to and between England and the Dutch Republic
- 3rd wk (1 Feb) Eleanora Pistis (Worcester), “Admired at home and Renowned abroad”: Nicholas Hawksmoor and the Vice-Chancellor William Lancaster
- 4th wk (8 Feb) Sarah Knott (Rothermere Institute/Indiana University, Bloomington), Witnessing the Age of Revolutions
- 5th wk (15 Feb) Åsa Karlsson Sjögren (Wolfson/Umea University, Sweden) Citizenship, poor relief and the politics of gender in Swedish cities and towns, c. 1770-1830
- 6th wk (22 Feb) Pierre Karila Cohen (Rennes), The French prefect in European perspective
- 7th wk (29 Feb) Brian Cowan (McGill), Dr. Henry Sacheverell and eighteenth-century political culture
- 8th wk (7 Mar) Roshan Allpress (Christchurch), Mapping the serious world: the evangelical networks of John and Henry Thornton

Joanna Innes (Somerville)
Faramerz Dabhoiwala (Exeter)
Perry Gauci (Lincoln)
Bob Harris (Worcester)