

Trinity Term
2010

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

FACULTY OF HISTORY

www.history.ox.ac.uk

with the Department of International Development and the Department of Politics & International Relations

African History & Politics Seminar

Mondays of Weeks 1–5 at 5pm in Seminar Room 2, Oxford Department of International Development (ODID), 3 Mansfield Road.

Week 1: 26 April

Miles Larmer, Sheffield University.

‘We have to think for Other People’: Understanding Zambia-South Africa relations, 1964–1989.

Week 2: 3 May

Gavin Williams, St. Peter’s.

Wine for Workers: Labour regimes in the South African Wine Industry.

Week 3: 10 May

Special Event: OReNGA Special Lecture 2010.

Venue: Manor Road Lecture Theatre.

General Muhammadu Buhari, former Nigerian Head of State & currently a leading member of the opposition.

Nigeria: Ten Years of Democracy.

Followed by a Reception in the Politics Common Room.

Week 4: 17 May

James Fairhead, University of Sussex.

African Studies & the American Civil War

Followed by Book launch: Identity Economics: Social Networks & the Informal Economy in Nigeria by Kate Meagher, published by James Currey.

Week 5: 24 May

Thandika Mkandawire, DESTIN, LSE

Is there a role for Social Policy in contemporary Africa?

Conveners: Dr AR Mustapha & Dr Ricardo Soares de Oliveira