

Trinity Term
2010

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD
FACULTY OF HISTORY
www.history.ox.ac.uk

Medieval Economic & Social History Seminar

Wednesdays at 5pm in the MacGregor Room, Oriel College

WEEK 1 Mark Bailey (Leeds Grammar School and All Souls College)
28 April Self-government in the small towns of late medieval England

WEEK 2 Rob Portass (Balliol College):
5 May Royal-magnate politics and social change in tenth-century Galicia

WEEK 3 George Molyneaux (All Souls College):
12 May Coins and royal power in the tenth-century English kingdom

WEEK 4 Chris Dyer (University of Leicester):
19 May Why peasants needed towns in late medieval England

WEEK 5 Steve Bassett (University of Birmingham):
26 May Anglo-Saxon defences in western Mercia: where are we now and where should we go next?

WEEK 6 John Langdon & Jordan Claridge (University of Alberta, Canada):
2 June Women and children in the medieval English labour force before the black death: the examples of building and agriculture

WEEK 7 Katharina Ulmschneider (Worcester College):
9 June Coinage and economy in Middle Saxon Hampshire and the Isle of Wight

WEEK 8 Margaret Yates (University of Reading):
16 June Married women, their landholding and the Court of Common Pleas

Conveners: John Blair (Queen's) and Ian Forrest (Oriel)