

Trinity Term
2010

UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

FACULTY OF HISTORY & FACULTY OF THEOLOGY

www.history.ox.ac.uk

Religion in the British Isles 1400–1700: Graduate Seminar

Thursdays at 5 pm in the Seminar Room, Corpus Christi College, Merton Street, Oxford. Refreshments follow in room 2.4

Thurs 29 April Judith Maltby, Corpus Christi College:

‘“Extravagancies and Impertinencies”: the debate over set forms, conceived, and free prayer in Revolutionary England’

Thurs 6 May Jacqueline Rose, Newnham College, Cambridge:

‘Royal ecclesiastical supremacy after the Civil Wars: Tudor concepts in Restoration context’

Thurs 13 May Sharon Achinstein, St Edmund Hall:

‘Milton, Religion, Republicanism and Marriage’

Thurs 20 May Ellie Bagley, Middlebury College, Vermont:

‘Attacks on the King James Bible’

Thurs 27 May Trevor Cooper:

‘“Authority would not except against them”: public worship at Little Gidding in the 1630s’

Thurs 3 June John McCallum, University of St Andrews:

‘Word, sacrament and discipline: the reformed clergy in Fife’

Thurs 10 June Achsah Guibbory, Barnard College:

‘The readmission of the Jews to England’

Thurs 17 June John Watts, Corpus Christi College:

‘The “lay party” and the “Great Turk”: the Church and the secular threat, c.1430–c.1530’

Felicity Heal, Jesus

Diarmaid MacCulloch, St Cross

Judith Maltby, Corpus

Sarah Mortimer, Christ Church