

HISTORY FACULTY OPEN DAY

FRIDAY 2 September 2011

IN THE EXAMINATION SCHOOLS

- 9.00 am – 10.30 am Registration (Outside South Schools)
- 10.30 am – 10:45 am Welcome and Introduction (South Schools)
Dr Benjamin Jackson (Schools Liaison Officer)
- 10.30 am – 11.30 am Parents and Teachers Information Session (North Schools)
Dr Perry Gauci (Admissions Officer), Dr Andrea Hopkins
(Admissions and Schools Liaison Support Officer)
- 10.50 am – 11.20 am History at Oxford I
(a) Dr Hugh Doherty, ‘Hubert de Burgh & the Siege of Dover (1216–1217)’
(b) Dr Sarah Mortimer, ‘Charles I: man on a mission’
(c) Dr Natalia Nowakowska, ‘A gap on the map? Introducing Renaissance Eastern Europe (1400-1600)’
(d) Dr Senia Paseta, Irish and British Questions, 1880-1922’
(e) Dr Nicholas Cole, ‘“What would Abe do?” The politics of American History?’
- 11.25 am – 11:55 am History at Oxford II
(a) Dr Conrad Leyser, ‘The Fall of the Roman Empire’
(b) Mr Nick Daisley, ‘Exploring an Oxfordshire landscape, and engaging a community with its past’
(c) Dr Stephen Johnston ‘Nature and Art in the Renaissance’
(d) Professor Jane Caplan, ‘“Speaking Scars”. What Can Tattoos Tell the Historian?’
(e) Dr Jan-Georg Deutsch, ‘Global Connexions: Empire in Everyday Life in the Interwar Period’
- 12 pm – 2.30 pm Lunch in colleges, hosted by current students (only available for those who have booked for lunch)
- 2.30 pm – 3.30 pm Admissions questions and answers (South Schools).
Dr Perry Gauci (Admissions Officer), Dr Senia Paseta (Senior History Tutor, St Hugh’s), Dr Lizzy Emerson (Senior Tutor and Tutor for Admissions, St Hugh’s) and current History students.
- 3:30 pm – 3:45 pm History Off The Shelf
Ms Chloe Jeffries
- 3.45 pm onwards Visits to tutors in colleges

Please note that, due to limited capacity, parents and teachers will not be able to attend any sessions apart from the Parents and Teachers Information Session.