

ECONOMIC HISTORY SOCIETY
and the CENTRE FOR EARLY MODERN BRITISH AND IRISH HISTORY, UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD

The State and Social Identity
in Early Modern England

A one-day colloquium,
Saturday 22 May 2010,
Jesus College, Oxford

10am–5.30pm (registration from 9.30)

The event will examine links between the state and social identity within three key frameworks: notions of rank and status; region and locality; and the tenure of public office

Speakers:

- ◇ Jonathan Barry
- ◇ Heather Falvey
- ◇ Aaron Graham
- ◇ Andrew Hopper
- ◇ Vivienne Larminie
- ◇ James Lee
- ◇ Diana Newton
- ◇ John Walter
- ◇ Nicola Whyte

Standard conference fee: £35
(to include lunch, plus tea/coffee)

Students: £15

For further information contact

<ian.warren@queens.ox.ac.uk>

or

<jonathan.healey@st-hildas.ox.ac.uk>

