

Graduate induction timetable MT16

for new History master's and research students

---

Tuesday, 4th October, 10 am

Welcome to new graduates on programmes in Medieval History, Medieval Studies

John Watts	Director of Graduate Studies in History
John Blair	Board Interviewer in Medieval History
Julia Smith	Chichele Professor of Medieval History
Kantik Ghosh	Programme Convenor for Medieval Studies

Location: Lecture Theatre, History Faculty, George Street. – The general meeting will be followed by a session for candidates on the Medieval History programme, introducing the structure of the taught elements of the programme to you.

New DPhil students may wish to attend this Induction session. While the session will be focused on Master's students, there will be information about resources that research students too will find useful.

---

Tuesday, 4th October, 10.30 am

Start of the induction meetings for postgraduate Art historians

Craig Clunas	Professor of the History of Art and Board Interviewer
Alastair Wright	Convenor of the M.St. in History of Art and Visual Culture
and others	Class leaders

Location: The first session is scheduled for the Lecture Theatre of the Department of the History of Art, 2nd Floor, Littlegate House, St Ebbes'.

---

Tuesday, 4th October, 1.00 pm

Induction meeting for the subject area History of Science and Medicine (for new master's and doctoral students in the subject area)

John Watts	Director of Graduate Studies in History
Robert Iliffe	Professor of the History of Science
and others	Class leaders

Location: Seminar Room of the Wellcome Unit for the History of Medicine, 47 Banbury Road.

New DPhil students may wish to attend this Induction session. While the session will be focused on Master's students, there will be information about resources that research students too will find useful.

---

Tuesday, 4th October, 3.00 pm

Induction for master's candidates in Global and Imperial History and US History at Oxford

John Watts	Director of Graduate Studies in History
James belich	Professor for Imperial and Commonwealth History
Gareth Davies	Board Interviewer, US History
and others	Class leaders

Location: Colin Matthew Room, History Faculty, George Street. – In a short combined meeting the Director of Graduate Studies will welcome you on behalf of the Faculty, outlining the Faculty's role in supporting your studies. After that the meeting will divide up into the Global and Imperial History and the US History cohorts, and the detailed induction will focus on the respective specialist fields. New DPhil students may wish to attend this Induction session. While the session will be focused on Master's students, there will be information about resources that research students too will find useful.

---

Tuesday, 4th October, 5.00 pm

Introduction to information facilities for graduate students new to Oxford (reserved for graduates new to Oxford because of space constraints)

Isabel Holowaty	History Librarian
Dave Baker	University IT Services Advisor

Location: Lecture Theatre, History Faculty, George Street. – The purpose of this meeting is to give those unfamiliar with the University an early introduction to some of the information facilities. Computer-based information and information processing is becoming an increasingly important part of the historian's work, and as members of Oxford University students have access to a broad range of such resources.

---

Wednesday 5th October, 9.00 am

Induction and introduction to tools and sources in Economic and Social History (for new master's and doctoral students in the subject area)

John Watts	Director of Graduate Studies in History
Kevin O'Rourke and others	Chichele Professor in Economic and Social History/Board Interviewer Class leaders

Location: Old Library, All Souls College. – The general meeting will be followed by the induction session of the short hands-on course, designed to acquaint all new graduate students in economic and social history with basic tools, techniques, and resources, and to impart unwritten, tacit professional knowledge.

New DPhil students may wish to attend this Induction session. While the session will be focused on Master's students, there will be information about resources that research students too will find useful.

---

Thursday, 6th October, 2.30 pm

Welcome to new graduate students on the master's programmes in British and European History, from 1500 to the present

John Watts	Director of Graduate Studies in History
Robert Gildea	Programme Convenor for Modern British and European History
Ian Archer	Class leader for Sources and resources

Location: Lecture Theatre, History Faculty, George Street. – The general meeting will be followed by a more detailed presentation of the course elements for both master's programmes. In this session you will have an opportunity to meet some of the class leaders for the joint Michaelmas Term programmes on theory and methods and sources and resources.

---

Thursday, 6th October, 3.30 pm

Induction session for master's programmes in Late Antique and Byzantine Studies

Marc Lauxtermann Bywater and Sotheby Professor of Byzantine Literature and others Class leaders

Location: Ioannou Centre for Classical and Byzantine Studies, St Giles. – This induction session should provide you with all the information you need about the two master's programmes in this specialist area. There will also be ample opportunity for you to put questions to the teaching team. The session will be followed by drinks to welcome you, at which you will be able to meet many more of those already here.

---

Thursday, 6th October, 4.00 pm

Welcome to new D.Phil. students

John Watts Director of Graduate Studies
Lyndal Roper Regius Professor of History
Micah Muscolino Co-ordinator of Graduate Studies

Location: Lecture Theatre, History Faculty, George Street. – At this meeting the DGS shall be welcoming you formally and explain a few administrative matters. If you have any problems you have been unable to sort out on arriving, we shall be able to suggest either a solution or the place to go for help.

---

Also, you are warmly invited to our Welcome Party for new graduates on Thursday 1st week (13th October) from 5.30pm to 7.30pm, in the Joan Thirsk Common Room, History Faculty. We would be grateful if you could sign up here so that we get an idea of numbers.