- Durham Cathedral Priory, edited by †A. J. Piper & R. Sharpe.

- The Friars' Libraries, 2nd edition, edited by R. Sharpe & James M. W. Willoughby.

The edition of the large catalogue of the Austin Friars from York and of the short documents from other houses has now been revised and amounts to about 250 pages including identification notes. Headnotes, introduction and indexes still to do, but not an urgent priority since this will be the last volume before the final indexes.

Prof. R. SHARPE, Faculty of History, Old Indian Institute, Broad St, OXFORD OX1 3BD. — Dr J. M. W. WILLOUGHBY, New College, OXFORD OX1 3BN.

- Unified Index of Authors, Works, and Identifications, compiled by R. Sharpe.

The List of Identifications is maintained as further volumes go through the editorial process, and some attempt is made to keep identification notes up to date with new editions &c. Before publication in print, policy decisions will be needed on the form of names, and how much will be added by way of author-notes. A decision to include generic material in the same index, or not, must depend on some worked experiments. There is no intention to merge or otherwise reprint indexes of incipits, second folios, &c. from individual volumes.
